

SOCIAL MEDIA

Alamogordo Public Schools Social Media Pages are intended to serve as platforms for communication between the public and the Alamogordo Public Schools ("APS"). Any comments submitted to these pages are public records subject to disclosure pursuant to the law.

APS is not responsible for comments or wall postings made by visitors to these pages. The comments expressed on these pages by non-District commentators, students, parents, faculty, and the general public may not reflect the views of the APS.

Comments and discussion may be moderated, and APS reserves the right to disable commenting and remove inappropriate comments containing, but not limited to, the following types of content:

- Commercial and promotional material that are not related to APS, its students, or its community;
- Profane, vulgar or offensive language and sexual content or links to sexual content;
- Content that promotes, fosters, or perpetuates discrimination on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national origin, military status, disability, genetic information or sexual orientation;
- Content that bullies, insults, threatens, or harasses;
- Content that supports or opposes political views, campaigns or ballot measures;
- Content that advocates illegal activity;
- Endorsement or advertisement of a vendor's products or services;
- Infringement upon copyrights or trademarks;
- Information that may tend to compromise the safety and/or security of the public or public systems;
- Information that may tend to disrupt the educational environment of APS.

In addition, APS upholds the Terms of Service standards administered by social media platforms.

APS encourages social media users to interact with each other in a respectful and meaningful way on the APS wall and within the comment threads of APS content.

Adopted: September 4, 2019